THE CITY LAWS.

The codification of the c ty laws is a matter that has been before the City Council in one form or another for decides. Councilman J. Fred. Birril, offered a resolution in regard to the matter some years ago, at least the subject law's delay," but a prior service in Council, and his experience as a clerk in the general assembly of Virginia have right. Twent one years ago, July ness. upon assuming office for a second term, in a few remarks said: "I have on sev-Regarding the codification of the city

And the code of 1821 is in most cash a reproduction of the acts of 1809-1811 in language and arrangement, when Mr. Hetbert was mayor, and Hugh reports from the river as if an explosion bmith president of council. All of which furnishes the most complete evidence that those who managed the affairs of the town of Alex. managed the affairs of the town of Alexandria a hundred years ago were as wise in their age and generat on as are those who control the destiny of the city today. THE GIRL FROM MISSOURI.

"The Girl from Missouri" is one of the most beautiful plays of the year. Its scenes are symphonies of color, and its electrical effects superb. All the characters are from living men and women whom the author, Granville F.

Surgis, has met and loved during his sojugns in the west. The play is treated with a delicacy and sympathy only possible when one writes of the people and the section of country nearest and dearest to the heart. To see "The Girl from Missouri" is as refreshing as a bresth of air from the pine-clad hills of home. It will be presented at the Opera House on Monday next, matinee and night.

SALE OF LAND.

Mr. John A. Marshall has sold to Mr. Erasmus Brady, of Fairfax county, for $1,000 cash, a tract of laud located at Oub Run, Fairfax county. It will be remembered by old citizens that General Stoughton, of the federal army, had his headquarters upon this run when cap-tured by Col. John S. Mosby during the civil war. General Strughton had sent out detachments from his camp in the out detachments from his camp in the hope of capturing the noted raider—Mosby. About midnight Col. Mosby appeared in Stroughton's camp and aroused the federal general. General Stoughton, supposing he was surrounded by his own men, asked, "Have you got Mosby." Mosby replied, "No, but I have got you."

PLACED UNDER BOND.

Robert H. Partridge, of Fairfax county, Va., was brought before Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett by Deputy Marshall Joseph Glover, on the charge of obtaining money by false representation in the neighborhood of $9,000. He was indicted in Washington city.

THE FASTEST BOATS.

A great deal of comment is being made A great deal of comment is being made about the races a day or two ago. It is a well known fact that the Augusta is the fastest keel boat afloat in this section. It is also known that the Kindo, owned by Mr. Wm. E. Moore, is the fastest speed boat in this city. Both of these yachts were beaten. The owners have said nothing about their defeat and it is presumed they care little about the it is presumed they care little about the award of the cups. It may be possible that the handicaps were faulty but this being the first race of the kind the boat owners must recognize that the commit-tee on races did what they thought just and if there is any error they are themselves to blame. Another cause of com-plaint is that the boat owned by Mr. Chadwick should have been placed in the speedboat class, whereas it was in the race with boats making 5 and 6 miles an hour. But the races are over and everybody is elated over the success of the Elks' Dramatic Club, which is the first organization to attempt to "pull off" an event of this kind.
